

Community Club to Form Training Classes for Nurses

At the May 4 meeting of the Community Club, Miss A. Rogers, of the Red Cross Teaching Center of Philadelphia, spoke of the desirability of organizing in Narberth classes in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick.

The purpose of the course is to teach the elementary principles of household sanitation and home nursing. The influenza epidemic has proven to the women of this country their need of or a more adequate knowledge of nursing procedure, so that they may be better fitted to safeguard their homes against contagion and to nurse members of their family in time of minor illness. It is also proposed to train and organize a corps of nurses' aids, to be used in time of epidemics and disasters. When organized, the members of this valuable body of women will meet at intervals for further instruction along the line of nursing.

The course consists of fifteen lessons of one and a half hours' duration.

These classes of twenty members each will meet twice weekly in a central location and an instructor will be detailed from the Red Cross Teaching Center of Philadelphia.

The cost will be $2.50 per member for the course of fifteen lessons, including text-book.

One class of twenty members has already been enrolled and it is to be hoped that other classes can be formed at an early date.

The course is open to all the women of Narberth and girls from fourteen years of age up.

Those desiring to enroll should immediately notify Mrs. Harold C. Fenno, Box 815, or telephone Narberth 698-W, for further information.

Prof. C. C. Nice to Direct Methodist Choir

The Methodist Church has been fortunate in securing as director of its large volunteer choir Prof. C. C. Nice, who will train the chorus for several weeks. Anyone desiring to take advantage of this unusual training will be welcomed by the choir. Rehearsals at the Methodist Church 8 P. M. sharp.

FREE DELIVERY SERVICE FOR NARBERTH.

Postmaster Haws has been directed to establish free delivery service at the Narberth post office, effective July 1.

A survey of the town was recently made and routes for carriers laid out by a postal inspector.

Three regular carriers and one substitute carrier will be provided, a Civil Service examination for which will be announced soon. The postmaster will be provided with application blanks, which may be secured for entrance to the examination.

Letter boxes will be placed at various points throughout the town for the collection of letters, and all residents will be requested to provide proper receptacles for their mail.

ABOUT DAHLIAS.

There is just two more weeks in which to get your dahlia roots in time for planting on May 15.

The Dahlia Show will be held on September 25 and at that the blooms will be just right if they are planted not much earlier or later than May 15.

Have the ground ready and examine now the roots that have been wintered over, as you may want to order some new ones.

DAHLIA SHOW COMMITTEE.

Rummage Sale Tuesday, May 11

The Women's Auxiliary of the Narberth Y. M. C. A. will hold their spring rummage sale in the lobby of the Y. M. C. A. Building on Tuesday, May 11, from 10 o'clock in the morning until all stock on hand has been disposed of.

In addition to the rummage there will be on sale a number of well made aprons, dolls, fans, flavoring extracts, and fancy articles left from former sales.

The revenue derived from this sale will be used in paying a coal bill of $120.00.

Additional packages of rummage may be sent to the Y. M. C. A. on Monday afternoon.

Bryn Mawr College

Asks you to invest five dollars in the future of your children.

You are starting accounts for them in the savings bank, providing for them in your wills, striving in every way for their material advantage, but you are failing to make proper provision for their education.

We ask you to invest five dollars in it.

Education is Americanization; education is assimilation; education is preparedness for citizenship. The next generation will be just as good as the men and women who teach them—just as good as the combined influence of home and school.

There is no limit to the sacrifices that fathers and mothers make for their children, but there is a limit to the personal sacrifices that they should ask teachers to make for them. We have passed that limit. Bryn Mawr wants to pay her professors decent salaries—not extravagant ones.

No State in the country is so much a part of American history, so rich in historical associations as Pennsylvania. Bryn Mawr wants to establish a chair that will teach American history with special reference to our ideals and institutions. She wants you to stand behind her in her efforts to prepare your daughters to meet the problems of their time usefully and understandingly. She wants you to help her send forth in the future, as she has in the past, well-trained, well-equipped women of high purpose and character to teach your children in the schools and the colleges.

For this purpose Bryn Mawr asks every Pennsylvanian to buy a little liberty bond—a five dollar investment that will free the college from some of the limitations that are restricting its usefulness. It carries no coupons, but one hundred per cent. interest will be paid to your children in education.

Education in America is for all the people, and its endowment should be by all the people. Sign on the dotted line for five dollars or for multiples of five, and send the money to

MAIN LINE COMMUNITY COUNCIL.

The Main Line Community Council held a special meeting at the Milestone on Tuesday, April 27th, for the purpose of hearing the scope of the new Suburban Association, and to consider the advisability of co-operation or amalgamation with this organization. A committee of the Main Line Community Council will confer with the Executive Committee of the Suburban Association and decide the wise course for the Council to pursue.

THE FIRESIDE

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, of Andover, Maine, were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Hoffman over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Goodall have been spending the past week in Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Means, of Wynnewood, spent the week end with friends in New York.

Only those residents who are enrolled and have declared their party preference will be entitled to vote at the primary election May 18th.

The members of the Narberth Community Club are glad to welcome their President, Mrs. C. P. Fowler, back to her duties after her extended trip to Canada.

William Struthers Ellis, of Bryn Mawr, has been elected President of the Bryn Mawr Horse Show Association to take the place of W. Hinkle Smith, also of Bryn Mawr, who held the office for 11 years, and who resigned at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the organization.

The Lower Merion Township Commissioners have decided to issue $270,000 in bonds to provide funds for the building of additional permanent roads throughout the township to replace some of the present main roads which are in such a bad condition and which are so expensive to keep in repair.

Mr. Ralph Donnelly Chamberlain, who has been visiting his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chamberlain Fenno, left for his home in New Orleans, La., Monday. Mr. Chamberlain, on arriving in Philadelphia, April 22nd, completed a seven months' cruise as radio operator on the S. S. Alderman, of the Brooks S. S. Company.

On Friday evening, May 28th, at Elm Hall, a Minstrel Show, Scout Play and Dance will be given by the Narberth Boy Scouts at 8.15 P. M. sharp. Many interesting features are planned and further items will appear in our next issue regarding this coming event, which promises to be one of the big attractions of the season.

Yes, we are informed the sale of Thrift Stamps and War Stamps is still going on at the post office. During March Postmaster Haws reports the sale of these stamps amounting to $397.75, and the sales for April were $522.40. The lessons in thrift which so many young folks practice in the purchase of these stamps will surely be of lasting benefit to them.

METHODIST CHOIR PREPARING FOR BIG MUSICAL SERVICES.

Within the very near future the volunteer chorus choir of the Methodist Church will give several musical services. The chorus is being trained by Prof. Nice, and unusual results are expected under his leadership. Prof. Nice has for several years drilled and launched large choral societies and choirs, and the Methodist Church is to be congratulated upon securing his services. This choir is the only large regular volunteer chorus choir in Narberth, and in addition to its other activities the chorus conducts a most attractive and enjoyable song service every Sunday evening.

WOMEN'S COMMUNITY CLUB

The meeting of the Women's Community Club was held Tuesday, May 4, in Elm Hall. The program was most interesting. There were readings by Mrs. G. M. Davis, given in Mrs. Davis' own charming manner. A selection by the club chorus was enjoyed by everyone. Also a solo by Mrs. Joseph Barclay, which was a particular treat to our members and guests.

Mrs. E. C. Batchelor gave a talk on "Laws of the Election Polls," which enlightened many of us as to the proper use of the ballot when the privilege of casting votes will be extended to the women citizens.

Miss Rogers, of the American Red Cross, gave a most interesting talk on the nursing course to be given by the Red Cross Association, and it is expected a class will be formed for our members. Surely nothing can be of more help or interest to our community than the prevention of disease, which is what the Red Cross aims to teach us.

An appeal for the Armenian Relief work was also made by Mrs. E. C. Towne, and it is hoped that many generous contributions will be sent to Mrs. Towne as a result of her appeal for this most worthy cause.

All members are invited to the Montgomery County Federation meeting to be held at the Neighbors' Club, Hatboro, Pa., on May 15th. It is hoped that a large delegation will represent our club. Particulars about trains, refreshments (as it is an all-day meeting) can be secured from Mrs. C. P. Fowler.

Next meeting of the Women's Community Club will be May 18th.

SUPPER PARTIES BECOMING FEATURE OF WYNNEWOOD PONY AND DOG SHOW.

Because of last year's popular demand for supper reservations, great interest is being shown in regard to arrangements for supper and dancing specialties on the evening of May 12th. Of course, admission to the grounds is free after 6 P. M. Reservations for tables are now being received by Mrs. Wm. J. Clothier. Dancing specialties are being evolved and many of the younger set will take part, including Miss Catherine Cox, Miss Elizabeth Strubing, Miss Kathleen Ritter, Miss Katherine King, Miss Marie Louise Baird, and Miss Catharine Mather. One big part of this program is still a secret and will be announced later.

Although the League of Nations is a past story, it is yet for the children to decide by buying grabs, each grab consisting of a vote, from the various nations, superintended by Miss Elsie Hirst as Columbia, following President Wilson's example of still holding on.

WESTMINSTER CIRCLE TO HOLD ENTERTAINMENT AND SOCIAL.

The Westminster Circle of the Narberth Presbyterian Church will hold an entertainment and social in the Sunday School room on Thursday evening, May 13th, at 8 o'clock. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

HOW TO GET THE 1920 LICENSE FOR YOUR DOG.

Residents of Narberth who own dogs and who have not renewed their licenses for 1920 should write to Irvin Bardman, County Treasurer, Norristown. The method of procedure is as follows: Ask Mr. Bardman to send you an application for a 1920 dog license and enclose either a two-cent stamp or a stamped and addressed envelope. The County Treasurer will then mail you the application form, and upon receipt of this form you should fill it out and mail it back to the County Treasurer, enclosing the necessary fee. A postage stamp or self-addressed and stamped envelope should also be enclosed with the application. In two or three days the County Treasurer will mail you the new 1920 license.

SCHOOL NOTES

"Without halting, without rest,
Lifting better up to best."

Dates to Remember.

Field Day, Monday, May 31st. There will be brief memorial exercises at 8.40 A. M., to be followed by opening events of Field Day.

Commencement, Thursday evening, June 17th, at 8 o'clock, in the School Auditorium.

We had the pleasure this week of a visit from Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Houston. Mr. Houston made a brief address to the student body.

Last Friday the teachers were the recipients of beautiful May baskets, attractively arranged with a variety of flowers. The baskets were carried to assembly for the morning exercises, which gave to the auditorium a good setting for the appropriate program which has been arranged for the occasion. Possibly the most interesting feature was an exercise by the first grade children called "The Dandelion."

The student body was pleasantly entertained last Thursday morning when the eighth grade girls gave a short program of songs and recitations. Helen Holme and Dorothy Shenamon very cleverly impersonated the old song, "You Can't Play in My Yard." Tuesday morning the seventh grade geography class entertained the High School with one of their review lessons on Japan. Some natives of Japan told interesting facts about their country and showed articles made in Japan which assure us of their clever skill and manufactures. Several natives recited for us in English, and the presiding officer made an appeal for our interest in the future welfare of Japan.

FAIRVIEW EXTENDS INVITATION.

The members of the Fairview Union Sunday School, of Narberth, extend a hearty invitation to the readers of Our Town to attend the 96th anniversary of the Sunday School, to be held on Sunday, May 16, at 3.00 P. M.

The outstanding feature of the exercises will be the unveiling of a beautifully inscribed bronze tablet, with portrait medallion, in memory of the late Charles Jones Fryer, who was the superintendent of the Sunday School for forty-one years.

Editorial

Those who are interested in a War Memorial for Narberth may be interested in the following letter which appeared in the Boston Herald from Mr. Morris Gray, President of the Boston Museum of Fine Arts, in connection with a discussion of "Memorials Fitting to the Spirit":

"I read with much interest in the Herald of last Sunday the article on the neglected condition of Webster's grave and the ingratitude of Massachusetts; and I wish to say a few words of my own recent visit there.

"On a beautiful morning late in October I motored from my home in Chestnut Hill to Marshfield in order that I might stand once again before the grave of Webster. At the end of the run I drove along a narrow and little-traveled road and presently came to a grass-grown cartpath leading eastward to a knoll that high and alone jutted out into the marshes. And a few minutes later I walked up the slope and stood bareheaded before the grave. It is situated at the back of the one fenced-off lot in the old burial ground of the Winslow family. It is marked by a rough-hewn granite stone supporting a white marble slab, roughened and dulled by time, carrying the single words 'Daniel Webster.' It faces the marshes, the sand dunes, the sea—and the dawn. It has a silence that seems as though it were broken only by the rare footfall on the cartpath below of some passing toiler of the sea or of the land. And it has the solemnity and simplicity and peace so extraordinarily fitting for the final resting place of that great, tragic personality.

"I thanked whatever gods there are that men had not instituted a drive to raise the money to build a boulevard and to establish a trolley system so that the trippers of a summer holiday could swarm over the place with their raucous and hysterical laughter and strew over it the eggshells and slovenly papers of their luncheon. I was glad that men had not converted the beautiful and fitting spirit of the place into the horror of that vulgarity which is born of the inappropriate; that they had left it unsmirched to be sought and found by those who approach it in the spirit that he himself would perforce have liked.

"Carlyle and a friend were walking a street in London many years ago, and suddenly Carlyle gripped his friend's arm and said, 'Who is that man that passed?' And the friend replied, 'That is Daniel Webster, of Massachusetts.' And Carlyle said, 'He looks like a walking cathedral.' And we who never saw Webster yet have looked perhaps into the eyes that look out of his portrait by Ames; we understand with what admiration and even more with what love our forebears looked upon him—looked upon the man of whom Joseph Choate once said in my presence—I quote not exactly: 'He forged the sword that gave victory to the North.'

"In these days when men pride themselves upon the lavish generosity which erects memorials often ostentatious and vulgar, in these days when men wot not of the spirit and, above all, of the things that are fitting to the spirit, let us be grateful for the ingratitude of the republic that has left Webster enshrined in the austerity, the loveliness and the peace of the land that he loved."

PASSING OF OLD INNS.

King-of-Prussia Follows Others in Closing Doors.

The historic King-of-Prussia Inn, one of the oldest hotels in the State and licensed before the American Revolution, has passed into history as a hotel. The old inn is being transformed into a dwelling house. The passing of this ancient roadhouse marks the closing of the third hotel on the Gulf road, or William Penn Highway within a few years, namely, the Green Tree Hotel in Lower Merion not far distant from Gulf Mills; the Bird-in-Hand Hotel at Gulf Mills, and the King-of-Prussia Inn at King-of-Prussia. All of them are old landmarks with the exception of the former, it having been erected by Reuben Smith, to bear the name of the primitive hotel, a century old structure that was razed. Aloft in front of the King-of-Prussia hotel for many years was a small antiquated sign representing the King of Prussia mounted on horseback. After war broke out with Germany the sign was removed and the name of the hotel changed to Ye Old Kind Inn. For many years this hotel was owned and conducted by the Hoy family. James B. Hoy, and afterwards by his wife, Madeline. During their regime the hostelry became noted for its cuisine department and for the many events in fox hunting sport that were held there. The King-of-Prussia Hotel is located at a very prominent business centre, that is where five roads, all extensively traveled, converge together. Fox hunters and motorists will ever remember the hospitality that was accorded at the old King-of-Prussia Inn, and travelers in general in the winter time will miss the warmth of its roaring fires and sociable environments.

Alexander H. Crockett, who was the last proprietor of the King-of-Prussia Inn, has engaged in the real estate business. Charles D. McAvoy is the owner of the above-named inn.

One of the inns in Lower Merion which passed into history many years ago was what was known as the Farmers' and Drivers' Hotel, located on the Walker farm not far distant from the Gulf Christian Church, and now occupied as a dwelling by Robert Adams.

Scout News

(By a Scout.)

Here we are again with our Minstrel Show and Dance, to be given at Elm Hall on Friday evening, May 28.

In addition to our annual minstrel we are going to give you a Scout play which gives you a little idea of the loyalty instilled in the hearts of our Narberth Scouts.

We hope everybody will assist in making our affair a grand success by purchasing as many tickets as they can afford, as the proceeds will go to taking our troop to instruction camp at Camp Delmont for one week, and as we have 40 Scouts in our troop this year it will take quite more money this year than last.

All those who attended our last year's entertainment will doubtless remember the pleasant evening spent with us and trust you will tell all your friends, especially those who were not able to attend last year, of the splendid time in store for them.

Come and help the boys.

CAMP BAKING.

"But if you are really enthusiastic camp cooks you will want to do more or less camp baking," writes The Cave Scout in Boys' Life, the Boy Scout magazine, for May. "The commonest way is by the use of the reflector oven. Most of you know how this oven works. The dough is mixed and placed in the oven, which is then propped up at an angle so the heat from the fire will strike against it. If you haven't a regular reflector oven an old dripping pan will do as well. Many old veteran woodsmen use their frying pans for this purpose, baking their bannocks to a turn.

"Here's a scheme the Cave Scout saw worked out by an old Siwash Indian squaw out on the Pacific Coast. Near her cooking fire she banked up a heap of sand where it would catch the heat. She mixed her dough rather thick, dusted it rather liberally with dry flour and placed the loaf on the sand. It baked perfectly and the few grains of sand that stuck to it brushed off without any trouble.

"Maybe some of you will even feel like tackling a clay bake oven. The Cave Scout has seen them do excellent work. Select a bank of clay as pure as you can find—the less sand or loam in it the better. Select a stake several feet long and peel off the bark. Drive this stake into the clay bank as deep as you expect the floor of the oven to be. Then on the downhill side from the stake, start digging into the bank. Dig back to the stake, keeping the opening as small as possible and forming an arched roof and a flat floor. Remove the stake and the hole it leaves will form the flue. If the clay is dry and shows a tendency to crumble, wet it slightly and plaster it smooth. When the excavation is completed build a small fire in the oven to harden the clay. If it cracks too badly plaster it again and again 'fire' it.

"To bake in such an oven, build a fire inside it and keep it going for an hour and a half or two hours. Then rake out the coals and ashes, put in the biscuits or bread, and plug up the door and flue to keep the heat from escaping. The heat in the clay will be sufficient to bake biscuits, or gems, which do not require long baking."

ASH COLLECTIONS.

The regular ash collection will be omitted for the week April 26th to May 1st.

There will be two collections during May: May 3d to 7th, collection of ashes and clean-up, and May 17th to 21st, collection of ashes.

During June, July, August and September, there will be one collection each month, starting on the first Monday, which will be devoted to work on the North Side, and Tuesday to South Side. This schedule will be followed closely unless interfered with by unforeseen borough work.

C. E. HUMPHREYS,
Street Commissioner.

FACTS WHICH EVERY MOTORIST SHOULD KNOW.

Many changes having been made in the Motor Laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania at the 1919 Legislative Session, it is deemed advisable to bring to the attention of the motoring public the salient points in which they would be most vitally interested.

All motor vehicles must be registered with the State Highway Department before their operation on public highways; non-residents may operate vehicles in Pennsylvania for the same period of time granted by their State to residents of Pennsylvania, but such exemption shall not apply to commercial vehicles owned by foreign corporations or individuals used in this State more frequently than one (1) round trip in any one week nor to the operators thereof.

Application for registration to be made upon blank forms prepared and furnished by the State Highway Department; no other forms acceptable. Application for registration of motor vehicle does not carry with it right of owner to operate unless accompanied by application for operator's license. Operator's license upon application issued to owners free; all others, $1.00.

To insure prompt delivery of license, make correct answers to all questions in application. Remit proper fee. Do not guess your manufacturer's or motor number. If in doubt, see the local dealer for your vehicle who can inform you where these numbers are to be found. Do not guess the horse power, but use the formula given in the law. Pleasure motor vehicles are registered according to exact horse power, the State Highway Department taking the fractional part of a horse power in all cases. The accepted horse power for the registration of motor vehicles propelled by steam or electricity shall be that given and certified to by the manufacturer.

Requirements of Operator.

Licensed operator must be sixteen (16) years of age or over and paid driver must be eighteen (18) years of age or over; they must have had at least five (5) days' experience in the operation of a motor vehicle, and must not be physically and mentally incapacitated. Any person who has lost the use of one hand or both, or who has lost the use of both feet, or whose eyesight is so impaired that with the aid of glasses he cannot distinguish substantial objects clearly at a distance of one hundred and fifty (150) feet, or who shall have less than twenty (20) per centum of normal vision, or who have less than two (2) per centum of normal hearing, shall be considered physically incapacitated, and cannot be licensed to operate a motor vehicle. Physical or mental incapacitation does not prevent the registration of a motor vehicle by an owner. Special permits to be issued upon application to those having lost the use of one hand only, upon receipt of evidence or demonstration showing that applicant has had sufficient experience in the operation of a motor vehicle.

Any person operating his or her employer's motor vehicle at any time shall be termed a paid driver.

All certificates of license are not valid until signed by licensee or licensees.

Learner's Permits issued to persons over sixteen (16) years of age to operate motor vehicles are for a period of thirty (30) days, but shall be valid only when learner is accompanied by a licensed operator.

Heavy penalty for misstatement of facts in application. Registration plates must be rigidly attached, one on the front, the other on the rear of motor vehicle. They shall be parallel to the axles, shall not be underneath any part of the body more than twelve (12) inches from the rear end thereof, shall not be covered, obscured, bent, altered or defaced, in any manner, and the lower edge of the rear plate shall be not less than fifteen (15) inches above the ground. The rear plate to be illuminated at night. Plates shall be kept free from oil, grease, dirt, or other substance likely to impair their legibility.

In the event of the loss of one or both registration plates, or should a plate or plates be so defaced that the number thereon is illegible, it shall be the duty of the owner to apply to the State Highway Department for new plates within forty-eight (48) hours of his discovery of the loss or defacement of such plate or plates, thereby avoiding arrest. Old plate or plates to be returned to the State Highway Department, Harrisburg, Pa. Fee for new plates $1.00, except in case of motorcycles or motor-bicycles, where new plate fee is $.50.

Dealers' plates are to be used only upon vehicles owned by a dealer and operated by such dealer or his employees for the purpose of demonstrating said vehicle to a prospective customer, testing or removing same from storage place, shipping point, or place of delivery, before or after sale.

Always have with you your authority to operate motor vehicle, such as Owner's Driver's License, Licensed Operator's License, Paid Driver's License, Special Operator's License or Learner's Permit, whichever the case may be. Registration certificate should be carried in motor vehicle.

Notify State Highway Department within one (1) week after change of residence.

License will be refused applicants who are known or proven to be reckless or careless operators or habitual violators of the Motor Laws.

Registration of any motor vehicle or license of any driver may be suspended or revoked after a hearing if the evidence warrants same.

Advise the State Highway Department immediately upon theft of motor vehicle. Notify same Department upon recovery of said vehicle.

The State Highway Department has installed a section to assist in recovery of stolen vehicles, which is co-operating with other States and with local police authorities.

Motor vehicle shall be provided with adequate brakes, horn, bell, or other signal device, and, where such vehicle is so constructed or covered as to prevent the operator thereof from having a sufficient view of the traffic following, the automobile as well as heavy trucks or commercial vehicles, and all other closed cars, i. e., sedans, limousines, coupes, etc., are required to attach mirror or other devices to enable operator to see the road to the rear.

Do not sound horn, bell, or signal device unnecessarily, but give reasonable warning of your approach to safeguard others.

Do not operate motor vehicle when under the influence of intoxicating liquor, any narcotic or habit producing drugs, or permit other persons to operate your motor vehicle in a like condition. It may mean heavy fine or revocation of license, or both.

Do not fail to render assistance after injuring person or property and, upon request, give your name and address. Failure to do this may cause your registration to be revoked.

Do not use muffler cut-out in any city, borough or incorporated town.

Do not use chains or other devices projecting more than one (1) inch on tires.

Upon the transfer of ownership, or the destruction of any motor vehicle, the registration shall expire. If motor vehicle is sold the original owner shall remove registration plates and notify the State Highway Department within forty-eight (48) hours, giving name and address of purchaser.

Upon transfer of ownership, the owner may upon application register another motor vehicle upon payment of transfer fee of $1.00. Provided, however, That such motor vehicle is of equal or less horse power or classification than that previously registered, or upon payment of a fee of one ($1) dollar and the difference between the fee originally paid and that due, if motor vehicle be properly registered in a higher class.

PENNSYLVANIA MOTOR LAWS.

Do not remove, obliterate, or alter manufacturer's number, or engine number on motor vehicles.

Do not operate your motor vehicle as a common carrier (jitney) without approval and certificate of the Public Service Commission.

It is declared a felony to wilfully and maliciously burn, or cause to be burned, or to set fire to, to attempt to set fire to, any motor vehicle. Maximum penalty, fine of $1,000 and imprisonment of five (5) years. (Pennsylvania Laws 288, 1919.)

It is a felony to take or steal a motor vehicle, or to receive or purchase a stolen motor vehicle. Maximum penalty $5,000, and imprisonment of ten (10) years. (Pennsylvania Laws 75, 1919.)

It is a misdemeanor to drive over any public bridge with a motor-driven vehicle with a gross weight of four (4) tons, faster than six (6) miles per hour.

All information for offenses under the Motor Vehicle Law shall be brought under the act, 283 Pennsylvania Laws, 1919, and not under any local ordinance, rule or regulation, and shall be made before a mayor, burgess, magistrate, alderman, or justice of the peace.

Motor vehicle may be given by owner as bail for a hearing or appearance at court.

Speed.

Do not operate a motor vehicle recklessly or at a rate of speed greater than is reasonable and proper. Speed limit 30 miles an hour except where signs are displayed limiting speed to 15 miles an hour.

Do not take part in any race or speed contest.

The rate of speed of any motor vehicle when timed shall be made on a measured stretch of highway not less than one-eighth (1/8) of a mile in length and shall be taken by not less than two persons.

No conviction shall be made upon the unsupported evidence of one person.

Rules of the Road.

Do not pass street car taking on or discharging passengers.

When meeting or overtaken by another vehicle legally traveling at a greater speed, turn to the right of the center of the highway, allowing other vehicle free passage to the left.

When overtaking another vehicle pass same to the left; do not attempt to pass at an intersection, sharp turn, curve or on approaching crest of a hill. Be sure you have an unobstructed view of two hundred (200) feet ahead and thus avoid accident.

All motor vehicles, especially heavy trucks, should, as far as possible, keep to the right-hand side of highway to allow for safety and passage of faster moving vehicles, and vehicles coming in opposite direction.

Keep to the right of the intersection of the centers of highways, and pass to the right of such intersection before turning to the left.

When two vehicles approach the intersection of two public highways at the same time the vehicle approaching from the right has the right of way.

When signalled to do so by the rider or driver of any horse or other animal, stop until danger has been avoided.

Stop upon signal or request of any constable, police officer, member of the State police force, or any officer of the State Highway Department, who shall be in uniform or shall exhibit his badge or other sign of authority. If requested, show officer your registration certificate or license and write your name in the presence of such officer to establish your identity.

No city, borough, or incorporated town, township, or county, shall adopt, maintain, or enforce any rule, regulation, or ordinance, regulating the speed, equipment, use or operation of motor vehicles, other than city or borough ordinances regulating the stopping and parking of vehicles, the use of certain streets as one way streets or regulating the kind and weight of traffic on certain streets and public parks, and establishing safety zones; no such special regulations effective unless notice of same is conspicuously posted.

Used Motor Vehicle.

Upon a sale or a transfer of ownership of a used motor vehicle the vendor or seller shall furnish to the vendee or purchaser an affidavit and statement in duplicate giving a full description of the used motor vehicle, using Department form N-175, "Affidavit by Vendor of Sale, etc., of Used Motor Vehicle." The vendee, or purchaser, shall make affidavit and statement in duplicate giving full description of the used motor vehicle, on Department form N-159, "Affidavit by Vendee Purchaser of Used Motor Vehicle," one copy of which shall be filed with the State Highway Department together with vendor's affidavit, form N-175, and fee of $2.50. If, upon acquisition of used motor vehicle, registration or transfer of registration is desired, execute proper form, forward to State Highway Department with proper fee, together with Vendee Affidavit, N-159 ($2.50), and Vendor Affidavit, N-175 (no fee), at which time registration tags will be issued. The remaining copy of form N-159, "Vendee's Affidavit," to be filed with the police department in municipality where vehicle was acquired or, if no police department, with the Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions. The remaining copy of form N-175, "Vendor's Affidavit," is to be retained by the vendee for his information.

Do not purchase used or second-hand vehicles unless vendor furnishes you with affidavit and statement in duplicate, Department form N-175. You may be purchasing a stolen car.

Proprietors of public garages, open air garages and repair shops, must keep record of cars left for storage or repairs.

Lights.

Every motor vehicle on the public highways shall, from one hour after sunset until one hour before sunrise, or whenever it is impossible to see clearly for a distance of two hundred (200) feet, show at least two lights of approximately equal power on the front of such vehicle.

Motor-cycle without side car attachment may display but one light on the front.

No brilliant light shall be displayed on any motor vehicle standing on the left side of the highway.

Do not display red light on the front of any motor vehicle.

Every motor vehicle, including motor-cycles, whether standing or in motion, shall display one red light on the rear, and if a trailer be attached to such motor vehicle, or another vehicle is being towed so as to obscure such red light, then a red light shall be displayed on the rear of such vehicle or such trailer.

Registration plate on the rear of every motor vehicle, motor-cycle and trailer shall be clearly illuminated during the same period as stated above.

All motor vehicles equipped with and using electric headlights of more than four (4) candle-power, not equipped with a permanent deflecting or diffusing device, shall be provided and equipped with some practical and efficient device or devices whereby the forward lights of such vehicle may be dimmed or lessened at the will of the operator to such an extent that such light or reflection therefrom through said forward lights will not interfere with the sight of, nor temporarily blind the vision of the driver of an approaching vehicle, and it shall be the duty of every operator of such motor vehicle equipped with and using electric lights upon the public highways of this State to effectually apply such dimmer to the forward lights of the vehicle operated by him or her, and cause such lights to be dimmed and lessened so as not to interfere with the sight or temporarily blind the vision of the operator of any approaching vehicle.

The front lights of all motor vehicles when in motion shall clearly illuminate the road for a distance of at least two hundred (200) feet in front of such vehicle and for five (5) feet to the right of such vehicle at a point twenty (20) feet in front of the lamps.

No lights of more than thirty-two (32) candle power shall be used on any motor vehicle, and all lights in excess of four (4) candle power equipped with reflectors shall be arranged, designed, diffused, or deflected, that no dazzling rays or light shall, at a point seventy-five (75) feet or more ahead of the lamps, rise more than forty-two (42) inches above the level surface on which the vehicle stands.

All additional or supplemental lights, including movable spotlights or search lights, shall comply with above restrictions, and the rays of light from any such search light or spotlight shall at no time extend to the left of the center of the highway.

The State Highway Department has made laboratory tests of devices that shall control the front lights on motor vehicles and has issued approval on a certain number of same. Copy of approved headlight devices may be had upon application to above department.

Do not turn off lights to avoid identification or arrest.

Don't forget to "STOP, LOOK AND LISTEN" at railroad crossings.

Don't forget that SAFETY FIRST for yourself and others saves life and limb.

All provisions of the Motor Vehicle Law will be enforced.

SAID A MOUTHFUL.

"Nothing that is false does anyone any good," thundered the orator.
"I've got false teeth," said a voice in the back, "and they do me a mighty lot of good."

HEALTH FIRST.

Mr. Black picked his baby boy and exclaimed with fatherly pride: "There now, isn't he just the picture of his father?"

Mr. Brown thought a minute, and replied: "Yes, you're right, but you don't want to let that worry you so long as he's healthy."—May Boys' Life.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow townsman, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
